No part of this journal may be reproduced in any form or by any means, stored electronically, or transmitted by any means without permission in writing from the Editor.

Copying: Single copies of individual articles may be made for private use or research. Authorization is given (as indicated by the Item Fee Code for this publication) to copy articles beyond the use permitted by Sections 107 and 108 of the U. S. Copyright Law, provided the copying fee of $27 per copy per article is paid to the Copyright Clearance Center, 222 Rosewood Drive, Danvers, MA 01923, USA. Persons desiring to photocopy materials for classroom use should contact the CCC Academic Permissions Service. The Item Fee Code for this publication is 0148-6055/2005 $27.00.

Authorization does not extend to systematic or multiple reproduction, to copying for promotional purposes, to electronic storage or distribution, or to republication in any form. In all such cases, specific written permission from the Editor must be obtained.

Permission for Other Use: Permission is granted to quote from the journal with the customary acknowledgment of the source. To reprint a figure, table, or other excerpt requires the consent of the Editor and one of the authors.

Inquiries, Address Changes, Claims, Single Copy Replacements, and Back Volumes: For address changes, please send both old and new addresses and, if possible, include the mailing label from a recent issue. Missing issue requests will be honored only if received within six months of publication date (nine months for Australia and Asia). Single copies of a journal may be ordered and back volumes are available in print, microfiche, or microfilm. Contact AIP Customer Services at 800-344-6902 (U.S. and Canada) or 516-576-2230; Fax: 516-349-9704; E-mail: subs@aip.org.

Document Delivery: Copies of journal articles can be ordered for online delivery from DocumentStore, AIP's online document delivery service (<http://documentstore.org/>).

Microform: The Journal of Rheology[®] is available on microfiche issued at the same frequency as the printed journal and annually on microfilm. Direct request to AIP, Circulation and Fulfillment/Single Copy Sales, Suite 1NO1, 2 Huntington Quadrangle, Melville, NY 11747-4502; Fax: 516-349-9704; Telephone: 800-344-6908 (U.S. and Canada) or 516-576-2230.

Online Access: All institutional subscribers to the Journal of Rheology[®] receive a domain license for access to the electronic version at no cost; for details, please see http://www.rheology.org/sor/publications/j_rheology. Abstracts of journal articles published by AIP and Member Societies (and several other physics publishers) are available from AIP's SPIN Web Service (<http://scitation.aip.org/joro/>).

Advertising: Inquiries should be forwarded to Nancy Kuhle, Advertising Department, American Institute of Physics, Suite 1NO1, 2 Huntington Quadrangle, Melville, NY 11747-4502; Telephone: 516-576-2440; Fax: 516-576-2481.

Manuscripts should be submitted to the Editor, John Brady, Chemical Engineering, CALTECH, 210-41, 1201 E. California Blvd., Pasadena, CA 91125 (E-mail: jor@cheme.caltech.edu). Information on manuscript submission may be found at http://www.rheology.org/sor/publications/j_rheology. Information for contributors appears in the first issue of each volume. This journal does not assess page charges and provides 25 free reprints of each manuscript published. Additional copies may be purchased; a price list is provided with the galley proofs. All other correspondence should be addressed to the American Institute of Physics, Suite 1NO1, 2 Huntington Quadrangle, Melville, NY 11747-4502, c/o Journal of Rheology[®].

Electronic Physics Auxiliary Publication Service (EPAPS): EPAPS is a low-cost electronic depository for material that is supplemental to a journal article. For a nominal fee, authors may submit multimedia (e.g., movie files, audio files, 3D rendering files), color figures, data tables, etc. Retrieval instructions are referenced in the related published paper. Prominent links in the online journal article allow users to navigate directly to the associated EPAPS deposit. Direct requests to the Editor; for additional information, see <http://www.aip.org/pubservs/epaps.html>.

Editor's Notice: Letters to the Editor, for publication, represent an important way for readers to call attention to errors or omissions in published manuscripts. These are always welcome and are earnestly solicited. The Editor would also welcome critiques concerning the journal and its contents that are not meant for publication and would be appreciative of receiving readers' views with regularity. Please be sure, however, that such more personal comments are marked clearly as being "not for publication."

The contents of this journal are indexed by the following: Science Citation Index, Current Contents/Physical, Chemical and Earth Sciences, Engineering Index, Chemical Abstracts, Applied Mechanics Reviews, RAPRA Abstracts, Physics Abstracts, and SPIN.

The Society of Rheology: Information about the Society, its functions, meetings, and services, can be obtained by contacting Ms. Janis Bennett at the American Institute of Physics, Suite 1NO1, 2 Huntington Quadrangle, Melville, NY 11747-4502; Telephone 516-576-2403; Fax 516-576-2223; e-mail: jbennet@aip.org and via the Society's World Wide Web home page at <http://www.rheology.org/sor/>.
